

The Anna Reese Tempest Distinguished Educator Lecture Series at Elizabethtown College Presents...

Education in a Post-Ferguson Society

A PANEL DISCUSSION

The Panelists

Tameka Hatcher

Program Analyst II
PA Human Relations
Commission

Pamela Higgins Harris

Senior Educational
Equity Specialist
Mid-Atlantic Equity Center

Dr. Richard Newton

Assistant Professor of Religious Studies
Elizabethtown College

Fran Rodriguez

Program Officer
Lancaster County
Community Foundation

Monday, March 30, 2015

Time: 5:00-6:00 pm

Elizabethtown College Susquehanna Room
(Reception and informal discussion 6:00-6:30 pm)

Please join the panelists in discussion of the following...

- Racial inequalities that continue to exist in the United States and that are mirrored in schools
- Overrepresentation of children of color who are suspended and identified for special education services
- Disparities that are evident in the inadequate preparation for college and careers provided by schools
- Ways to address racial concerns and advocate for change

Follow the panel discussion in real-time using #edtempest