

FIRST YEAR STUDENT ADVISING SHEET

MAJOR: History

COURSES REQUIRED BY THE MAJOR

First Semester

Second Semester

History (see note 1)

NOTES:

1. A History major's program must include one (1) introductory course (100 level) in each of three areas – U.S., European, non-Western – three (3) 300 level history courses in each of three areas – U.S., European, non-Western – five elective courses in history, and a capstone class at the 400 level
2. Social Studies Education Certification should contact Rachel Finley Bowman, of the Education Department, for more information. Education majors have specific Education requirements in the fall semester of the first year.
3. Total: 48 credits required for a History major.
4. Students may opt for a major in History as a preparation for law school, graduate studies in history, teaching, government service; library, archive, and museum studies.

Students interested in History should contact Professor David Brown, Department Chair, Wenger 202, extension 1249.