

Politics, Philosophy and Legal Studies

FIRST YEAR STUDENT ADVISING SHEET

MAJOR: Political Philosophy and Legal Studies

COURSES REQUIRED BY THE MAJOR

First Semester

- See note 1

Second Semester

- See note 1

NOTES:

1. In the first year, students should take the following courses: EC 101 Principles of Macroeconomics and PH 110 Logic & Critical Thinking.
2. Students should take PS 223: History of Western Political Thought I in the fall of their sophomore year, and PS 224: History of Western Political Thought II in the spring of their sophomore year.
3. Students are strongly encouraged to take Mock Trial I and II no later than their sophomore year.

Students interested in political philosophy and legal studies should contact professor Kyle Kopko Nicarry 245, (717) 361-1990, kopkok@etown.edu.