

YOUNG CENTER

for Anabaptist and Pietist Studies

Special Events for 2018-19

September 20, 2018

Chasing the Amish Vote: Politics, Polarization, and the Old Order Community

Dr. Steven Nolt and Dr. Kyle Kopko will report on their research about AmishPAC, a political action committee looking to mobilize the Amish vote.

October 20, 2018

Homecoming, Ribbon Cutting and Open House, 12:00-4:00 Brethren Heritage Festival

November 15, 2018

Snowden Fellow Lecture Mental Health Treatment in the Plain Communities

This presentation by Dr. Charles Jantzi will explore the current thinking about mental health issues and treatment approaches within the Plain Communities.

February 7, 2019

“I just want a red convertible:” Surprising Stories from 30 Years Researching and Publishing Amish Life

Senior Fellow Emeritus Donald Kraybill will share untold stories from his years of private fieldwork among the Amish

March 14-15, 2019

Young Center Dedication and Durnbaugh Lectures

Given by Dr. Christopher D. Herbert

March 14

Durnbaugh Lecture

Forgotten Sounds: Researching, Transcribing, Performing, and Reimagining the Music of the Eighteenth-Century Ephrata Cloister

March 15

Durnbaugh Seminar

Voices in the Pennsylvania Wilderness: An Examination of the Music Manuscripts, Music Theory, Compositions, and (Female) Composers of the Eighteenth-Century Ephrata Cloister

April 9, 2019

Kreider Fellow Lecture, “Amish Identities in Changing Contexts”

Dr. Joshua Brown’s presentation will highlight social and cultural changes within Amish settlements, especially with regard to linguistic change.

June 6-8, 2019

Health and Well-Being in Amish Society: A Multidisciplinary Conference

